

THE HINDU

METROPLUS

CHENNAI • MONDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 2012

For ceramic art lovers

EVENT “EarthMatters: An Indo-Korean Ceramic exhibition” to showcase the works of 12 artistes from India and Korea

InKo Centre, Kalakshetra Foundation, Lalit Kala Akademi Regional Centre, Chennai, and Arts Council Korea, present ‘EarthMatters: an Indo-Korean Ceramic exhibition’ at Lalit Kala Akademi, Egmore, from February 14 to 21. The exhibition is the culmination of a four-week residency programme (between January 12 and February 12) at Kalakshetra Foundation, where 12 artistes, six each from India and Korea were brought together to develop new work as well as to share, networking with peers and for interactions with students and the public at specified periods. The programme hopes to be the first of many such annual residencies set up in India and Korea for ceramic artistes. The exhibition will showcase work created during the residency as well as some work created by the artistes prior to it. For details, call InKo Centre at 2436-1224.