METRO PLUS THEATRE FEST 2013

InKo Centre, in association with The Ministry for Culture, Sports and Tourism, Korea Arts Management Service and Asia Now Productions, is delighted to invite you to the Tale of Haruk by Performance Group Tuida at The Hindu Metroplus Theatre Festival 2013.

Saturday, 17 August 2013, 7.30 pm at Chowdiah Memorial Hall, Bangalore.

Featuring traditional Korean puppets made of paper, unique native masks and percussion instruments made of recycled material,, this is a visually stunning performance, that combines with precision, the acting traditions of both Eastern and Western clowns. It is a tale that breaks down barriers of region, race and language to become a universal story that everyone can relate to.

Performance Group Tuida, one of Korea's most innovative and accalaimed theatre groups, was formed in 2001 by eight graduates from the Korean National University of Arts, who aimed to create an open, nature-friendly and evolving repertoire. The group's Korean-yet-cosmopolitan style, has resulted in several awards and accolades in Japan, China, Hong Kong, Taiwan, United States and Ireland where they have presented their work at numerous international children's festivals.

We look forward to seeing you at the show.
